

MOBILE ANYONE FOR TENNIS?

COPY:

Strawberries - Cream - Action!

By popular demand, Britain's top 'minature, outdoor, comedy tennis show' has just gone mobile.

Pulling the court, scoreboard and posh umpire behind him, our highly strung tennis player searches streets, parks and town centres for worthy opponents.

The ensuing comedy matches features everything about tennis that we love the best ... painful injuries, temper tantrums, and of course slow motion replays.

The court is pristine, the umpire inscrutable and the sprinkler system is unpredictable and indiscriminate - its just like the real thing!

TECH SPEC:

- This show rolls on large pneumatic castors which are fine on normal street surfaces and the kind of grass in a public park. It cannot cope with steps or really rough grass
- Parking close to the performance site is the greatest gift you can bestow!
- Changing - the van is fine if it is close to the site, but feel free to spoil us.
- The PA is battery powered so we do not need power on site, a socket to recharge between sets is helpful.
- Stewarding of equipment required between performances, and during performances if it is crowded and/or lively!!
- Access to performance area for van to deliver/remove the court and ladder.
